REPRESENTATIVE EXPERIENCE

Represented BBX Capital Corporation in the spinoff of its subsidiary, BBX Capital Florida LLC, in order to separate the business, activities and investments into two separate, publicly-traded companies. As a result of the spinoff and transactions consummated in connection with the spinoff, BBX Capital Florida LLC was converted into a Florida corporation and BBX Capital Corporation changed its name to Bluegreen Vacations Holding Corporation.

Represented BBX Capital, Inc., as parent to Renin Holdings, in connection with both Renin's acquisition of all of the assets of Colonial Elegance, a supplier and distributor of building products, and the provision of acquisition financing to Renin.

Represented commercial and residential pest control company in connection with the formation of its holding company platform. Also represented subsidiaries of the company in connection with two different purchase and sale transactions. These transactions significantly expanded its existing operations and footprint in Florida.

Represented BPD (formerly Brown Parker & DeMarinis Advertising), a Florida-based hospital and health system marketing agency, and its founder, Jason Brown, in connection with a recapitalization and strategic investment from WindRose Health Investors LLC, a New York-based healthcare private equity firm.

Represented FirstService Corporation, a residential property services company, in its acquisition of various property management companies located in Florida, New York and South Carolina.

Represented beverage company in the redemption of shares owned by minority holder following dispute with the holder.

Represented private equity fund in structuring and preparing equity-based and phantom equity compensation plans and agreements for portfolio companies.

Numerous platform and follow-on acquisitions of portfolio companies on behalf of Addison Capital Partners.

Represented a Florida-based corporation in its acquisition of a worldwide supplier and distributor of commercial aviation parts.
