OVERVIEW

Sam Patmore is a Shareholder in the Litigation Department. Sam represents clients across the country in a wide variety of intricate commercial and technology matters, including antitrust, securities, intellectual property, products liability and complex business litigation. His nationwide class action practice involves representing clients on both sides of the “v.” in state and federal courts at all levels. Sam also regularly serves as local or primary litigation counsel on patent matters pending in the Southern District of Florida.

Before joining the firm, Sam served as a Law Clerk to the Honorable John H. McBryde of the United States District Court for the Northern District of Texas and worked as a litigation associate in the New York office of a large international law firm. Sam also previously worked in the area of telecommunications policy for the United States Senate Committee on Commerce, Science, and Transportation.
